

Highwaymen Rob Insurance Man; Leave No Clues

Detectives Monday were investigating the holdup Saturday night of T. W. Howell, 175 South Dunlap street, by three negroes, but no arrests had been made and but very vague clues were left to the stick-ups' identity. Howell, who is an insurance man, was recovering from two severe blows on the head received at the robbers' hands.

The highwaymen staged their job at South Wellington and Iowa avenue Saturday night. The proceeds of the job was $16 in cash and a Wallham watch. Howell was making collections for the Cotton States Life Insurance company and was in a negro section when accosted by the three blacks. One stood on each side and one at his back, detectives said, and when he moved whacked him with a pistol.

Detectives Carter and York questioned Howell at his home Sunday where he was taken after receiving first aid at General hospital. He could give no definite description of his assailants, so the officers said. Several blacks were halted by officers Saturday night and questioned but none arrested.

Continue Case Of Local Druggist

Theodore Pinstein, druggist, will not be tried in Second criminal court for manslaughter growing out of the death of Mrs. Bertha Randle until Oct. 28, due to the absence from the city of the material witness in the case. The case was continued Monday on behalf of the state.

Abe Cohn, of counsel for the defense, asked the court to have the indictment against Pinstein quashed and the case thrown out of court on the ground that the indictment did not specifically state what crime Pinstein is alleged to have committed. Judge Harsh overruled the motion and on petition of the state continued the hearing of the case.

Pinstein is alleged to have sold Jamaica ginger to Mrs. Randle which contained wood alcohol and which resulted in her death.

TANLAC FINEST INVESTMENT

"After It Helped Me the Way It Did I Can't Doubt Anything Said About It."

"I have actually gained over fifteen pounds on three bottles of Tanlac and I consider it the best investment I ever made in my life," said James C. Cook, 1616 Patton street, Memphis. "I am an employee of the Overland Automobile company."

"A year ago this winter," said Mr. Cook, "I was taken down with a very bad case of the 'flu,' and for some time afterward I was in a mighty bad fix. I was in such poor health this winter that it worried me. I could eat nothing but what it made me feel miserable. There was a feeling like a lump of lead and awful pains in the pit of my stomach. I lost weight until I had to have my clothes cut down. About two months ago I had such a bad spell with my stomach that I had to lay off from work for several days and live on such things as toast and milk and even then I felt weak and dizzy and had fainting spells every day. I became greatly discouraged as it looked as if my case was beyond the reach of medicines."

One day I read a statement that described my troubles so well that I immediately bought a bottle of Tanlac. That first bottle helped me so much that I followed it up, and the results have been nothing less than wonderful. I have taken three bottles now and have actually gained more than fifteen pounds in weight. I can eat just anything set before me and the fact that I have picked up so rapidly in weight shows how well my food agrees with me. I sleep sound every night and feel as well in every way as I did before having the 'flu.' I used to doubt much that was said about Tanlac, but since it has built me up so wonderfully, I believe anything good that is about it."

Tanlac is sold in Memphis by the following agents: Warnock Drug company, Weiss Pharmacy, Doyle-Turley Drug company, A. Renkert & Co., two stores; L. H. Kilpatrick, Washington-Purdy, Moore's Pharmacy, Taylor & Taylor, three stores; Washburn-Lyle Drug company, C. O. Manning and Sattler's Pharmacy. adv.

THIS STORE HAS KEPT PACE WITH THE PROGRESS OF MEMPHIS

Nearly a quarter of a century ago the E.E.E. Store threw open its doors for business in a small and most unpretentious basement at the corner of Main and Madison.

From this humble beginning this store has steadily grown until today it stands supreme as the South's greatest shoe store—whether you view it with regard to the size of the building—the amount of floor space it occupies—the quantity and quality of stock it carries—its wonderful volume of business—its cash system by which we are enabled to sell on a closer margin of profit—or the fundamental foundation around which our tremendous success has been built—namely: "The shoes you buy at this store must give entire satisfaction."

Back of this whole organization lies a practically perfect system of cash merchandising. Every pair of shoes that is sold under this roof must be paid for at the time of sale.

We have no individual charge accounts. Here at the big store there are no bad debts—no credit losses—no losses from uncollectable accounts. Consequently here every man, woman and child receives full value for the money they spend. Here there are no extra profits tacked on to cover the losses and the many other expenses of credit accommodations.

Our twenty-four years has taught us that to be successful merchants we must have what the public wants and at a price that is fair. We are better prepared to serve you this Fall than ever before in our history. We will be mighty glad to have you visit us.
